MOUNT WEEKLY

THEMOUNTMKE.COM

IN WORSHIP TODAY

The Israelites had sinned. Some were taking advantage of each other. Nehemiah called them to live in the fear of the Lord. He also set the example of selfless generosity. As we live in the "fear of the Lord," we will seek to do what pleases him, even live selflessly with one another and for him. This includes a life of generous offerings to the Lord. We'll be looking at Nehemiah 5.

FREE GIFT

If you are a first-time guest with us today, we have a gift for you. Please stop by the Welcome Table with your Connection Card. We'd love to share this gift with you.

NEXT STEPS

If you're new with us today or would like a refresher study of the Bible's teachings, you're invited to take this next step. Learn more about God's ways through Christian Essentials. Ask Pastor Bourman for more information or sign-up here:

MOUNT LEBANON CLIMBS RALLY THE FAMILY

In worship today, we're introducing a commitment card, an information sheet, and a worksheet to go along with it. We want to give you the opportunity to consider privately how you want to commit yourself to the Lord with your offerings. On February 11, you will have the opportunity to place your sealed commitment cards on the altar (to remain sealed and unopened). This will be our act of commitment. Make sure you take one home today.

STARGAZING SOIREE

Our “Stargazing Soiree” is inspired by the theme Bible verse from Daniel 12:3 - “Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

At Mount Lebanon, it’s all about identity. Today, more than perhaps any other time in history, many voices are screaming at children. Through these screams, the world is trying to assign students an identity. These shouting voices need to be drowned by the voice of our Savior. At Mount Lebanon - every single day - students are reminded of their true identity in their Savior: Disciples. Heirs. Leaders. This silences the screams, and students begin to dream!

With a Christ-centered, gospel-motivated school culture, and a committed community, Mount Lebanon makes a difference both for now, and for eternity in the lives of children. Let’s come together and support Mount Lebanon as they reach for the stars!

This is your school. We want to invite you to an evening to celebrate and to continue to support this. Register here: https://bit.ly/MountMKE_Gala_2024

Or call the church office to register.

MINISTRY UPDATES

FIRST SUNDAYS - ACTS 29

In an effort to become consistent as we teach and encourage our young people, we are kicking off a series of studies and events for our 7th graders and up. Our first event will be a study and skating outing at the Pettit Center. This will also serve as confirmation studies for our young people.

The “First Sunday” event will be on February 4, right after church.

SUNDAY SNACKS AND GREETERS

We are looking for friendly, smiling faces who love to serve other people. Know anyone? We’re looking for help to set up Sunday snacks and serve as a greeter at church once every 4-6 weeks. Let the church office know if you can help.

SOAP (RE)Kick-off

Are you a part of our SOAP group? It’s a group of people who encourage each other in their daily devotions?

We’re kicking off a new Bible reading plan in Lent (2/14). It’s a perfect time to join.
