IN WORSHIP TODAY

More was asked of Peter than he could possibly do. He was given a weight of responsibility – first for his brothers and then for Jesus himself. The weight was too much! Peter buckled under the pressure even as Jesus gave the command and made the request. Yet, Jesus did not leave Peter under the burden. Jesus carried Peter’s burden and ours, too.

SCARS

This Lenten season, we’re taking a look at the scars we all have from our sin and from the sin of others. Ultimately, it’s not about our scars, but rather the scars of Christ which he took for us on the cross.

*But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are healed.*

Isaiah 53:5

THE LUTHERAN CEILI ORCHESTRA

The Lutheran Ceili Orchestra (TLCO) was founded by Pastor Mark Jeske and music director Jeff Krumbein in Milwaukee, Wisconsin in the 1990s. Originally assembled from members of St Marcus Lutheran Church to accompany a Christian worship service around St Patty's Day, the group has grown to include members of Lutheran churches from all over Wisconsin and tours across the country. Their unique mission is to lead meaningful, edifying liturgical worship while bringing forward the voice of the ancient Celtic Christian.

Today, February 18, TLCO is leading us in worship. You are invited to give a gift to support their music and worship ministry in a free-willing offering at the conclusion of the service.

Today, you will experience a distinctively Lutheran worship service in the Celtic Christian culture. It sounds different, yet it is beautiful in its own way. It focuses on different characteristics of our God and the life we live as his followers, yet glorifies the same God and calls us to live distinctively Christian lives.

MINISTRY UPDATES

Midweek Lent

Last Wednesday, we began our Lenten journey. This means special worship opportunities every week. After that, we will have regular midweek services each Wednesday. These services will be at 4:30 pm and 6:00 pm. There will be a light soup supper served between the services. Please contact the church office if you would like to help provide a part of the supper.

Office Administrator/ Ministry Coordinator

Friday, February 16, was Elizabeth Higgins' last day at Mount Lebanon. She has taken a new position at a different company. We wish her God's richest blessings. We will be seeking to fill her role. More information will be available soon, but if you are interested in learning more about these positions, please let Pastor Nate know. And, if you would like to help in anyway, please contact Pastor Nate.

SOAP (RE)Kick-off

We're kicking off a new Bible reading plan in Lent (2/14). It's a perfect time to join. Reading plans are on the back table. We will have a study together on February 25 after the voter's meeting. We'd love to have you join in!
