

The Mount Weekly

Worship Notes

TODAY:

Saturday: Waymaker #3: Of Wanting More

We never can seem to get enough time with Jesus. There always seems to be someone wanting something from us. We're looking at the miracle Mark 6:30-44 and learning from Jesus when he multiplies the loaves.

Sunday: Your Good Shepherd.

What can we learn about Jesus in John 10 when he describes himself as our Good Shepherd and our Gate? We'll be looking at John 10.

Next week: Waymaker #4: Jesus Walks on Water.

Wait. Another storm? More panicked disciples? But there is more faith this time. Peter takes a step on the water in faith. Why does Mark include two storm-miracles? What does he want us to learn there? Next week, we're back on the lake again with Jesus: Mark 6:45-56

Shoulder-to-Shoulder Initiative

The work that we do in our ministry is hard. It is challenging. No one debates that fact. We have called pastors and teachers to labor publicly in our school and in our church, and we want to support them.

This year, we are taking on a "shoulder-to-shoulder" initiative. It isn't just the work of a small team to support our called workers and those who labor in our ministry as a calling, but it

Our Mission

We are a community for the community.
We are here to share God's Word to connect people to Christ and to our caring Christian community.

is the work of our whole congregation to hold them up.

Please go here <https://bit.ly/ShouldertoShoulder> and consider three ways that you can get involved in their support.

Coffee and Kids

On Friday, September 8th, the Coffee and Kids group is restarting their weekly gathering! This is a morning Bible Study group for parents and young children to attend, coinciding with drop-off of the school-aged kids. Devotion will start at 8:15am in the community room. This is a great opportunity for parents to connect, drink coffee, encourage one another, and pray for their children together. Please invite any parents, grandparents, or caregivers you know to drop in!
